FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Extreme Weather Fair

(Sedgwick County, Kansas) – Sedgwick County will take part in the "Extreme Weather Fair," Saturday, April 26 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Kansas Coliseum, Pavilion II. Admission is FREE to the public.

There will be a Ready to Respond Class will be held at Noon and Storm Spotter Classes will be held at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Sedgwick County Emergency Management Volunteer Fire Rescue, RACES (amateur radio operators), TEST (equipment operators) and the K-9 Search & Rescue Teams will be showcased at the Fair. In addition, the K-9 Search and Rescue Dog Team will be doing demos throughout the day. Many exhibitors displaying storm shelters, new construction of safe rooms, home generators and many more will be present.

"We are in the middle of severe weather season," said Sedgwick County Commission Tim Norton. "This Fair is a great way to inform people and answer questions about how they can be prepared before an emergency takes place."
